INTRODUCTION

This reading and writing material will help you to learn reading, practicing, and writing purposes. You can practice the speaking part with your consultant, teacher, or peers.

You will learn some basic grammar, including possessive, present tense, and past tense.

There are some assignments and word connections with their meanings to test your comprehension. You can practice and improve your vocabulary.

Let's move on to learning.

Tongue Twister

“Betty bought a bit of better butter.”

Tammy takes a train every Tuesday.

Cindy creates Citrus Soda in the summer.

Ian's in Italy for Italian dishes.

HOT AIR -BALLOON

Today is windy, and the sky is blue! There are many balloons in the air.

Cathy and Andy are floating in the air in an air-balloon. Cathy is very excited, and so is Andy. Andy asked Cathy: “Are you afraid?” Cathy answered: “No! I am delighted.”

They flew for about one hour and finally landed at the beach shore. Cathy hoped to fly again in the winter.

- Can you fly a hot air balloon?
- Would you like to try? Why? / Why not?

Traditional Dance

The children are dancing with their hands up.

They are wearing traditional net skirts with flowers. The children are delighted while performing traditional dances.

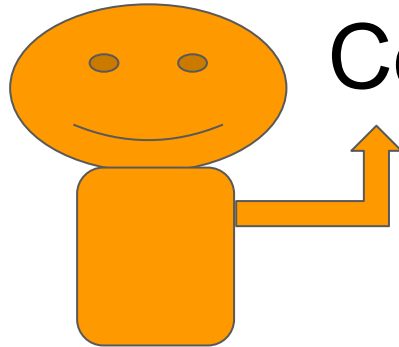

Practicing and performing the traditional dance is vital to preserving people's culture. Traditional dance brings the community together to interact with each other.

Questions

1. Does your community have any cultural activities?
2. Can you name some of the cultural activities in your country?
